INPUT CAPITAL CORP. WINS INVESTOR RELATIONS AWARD

02/09/2015

REGINA, Feb. 9, 2015 /CNW/ - Input Capital Corp. ("Input" or the "Company") (INP.V) (INPCF) is pleased to announce that only nineteen months after becoming listed on the TSX Venture Exchange, the Company won the award for "Best IR by a TSX Venture Exchange-listed company" at the 2015 IR Magazine Awards held in Toronto on February 4, 2015.

"I would like to congratulate our team at Input Capital for their hard work and dedication in winning this award," said Input President & CEO Doug Emsley. Emsley added, "We have an ongoing responsibility to our shareholders to manage, discuss and report about our business in an accurate and timely manner, and we take that very seriously."

The "IR Magazine Awards – Canada 2015" are decided by an independent telephone survey of more than 270 analysts, portfolio managers and investors based in Canada. The voters select companies that are giving them the best investor relations service across a range of different areas, including reporting and disclosure, corporate executives, and corporate governance.

About Input

Input is an agriculture commodity streaming company with a focus on canola, the largest and most profitable crop in Canadian agriculture. Input enters into canola streaming contracts with canola farmers in western Canada. Pursuant to the streaming contract, Input purchases a fixed portion of the canola produced, at a fixed price, for the duration of the term of the contract. Input is a non-operating farming company with a portfolio of forty two canola streams, all of which produce canola and revenue for Input in the year the agreement is signed. Input plans to grow and diversify its low cost canola production profile through entering into additional canola streaming contracts with farmers across western Canada.

Input is focused on farmers with quality production profiles, excellent upside yield potential, and strong management teams. Input has completed canola streaming contracts in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba.
